Everyone who worked that day should re-train their customer service skills. Everyone seemed to have an issue and a terrible attitude. I have rolling the eye, bad attitude, not enough napkins, no tool there was another table served by someone else and the waitress rolled her eyes as she walked away from the table. I had to stand up and ask someone else if napkins were in short supply, as every time we asked for napkins we only got 2 at a time... Ordering the wings of a group of 6-2 napkins was absurd. All employees have been disturbed... The only friendly man was the gentleman at the bar. Other than that, Morgan has terrible customer service as well as the other servers that were around that day. As for the food, just - EH - no big deal, not worth the bad service. We don't recommend margherita pizza - it was very bless, they just added pepper on top for more flavour. In this area there are a lot of other pizza places - do yourself and your wallet a favor and stay away from here! More here! More
